About myself	I am an English and French teacher. As a native speaker of both languages from Canada I am fluent in verbal and written English and French (my mother is French and my father is English). I have a degree in childhood education from University of Montréal. I received my Tesol / Tefl certification from Oxford Certification program. I have an experience of working as a private tutor for two children. Besides teaching them English and French I also cooked for them, helping with homework and accompanying them. I am a positive and active person, who is fond of history. I like to build strong and positive relationships with students and parents. I like ice-skating and hockey, can teach a child to ice-skate and playing hockey as well.
