About myself	Warm, reliable, and highly experienced childcare professional and housekeeper relocating to Grand Cayman and seeking opportunities in either field. I bring a strong academic and professional foundation in child development, including a Master of Social Work (Clinical focus) and hands-on experience working with children and families in therapeutic settings. In my current role as an In-Home Therapist /

Outpatient Clinician, I support children’s emotional and behavioral needs using developmentally appropriate, relationship-based approaches while building trust and consistency within the home. This clinical background strengthens my ability to provide calm, attuned, and emotionally supportive care for children of all ages.

Alongside my childcare and clinical experience, I am also an accomplished private housekeeper and household caretaker, having independently managed the full care of multiple private residences. My experience includes high-standard cleaning, laundry and linen care, organization, guest preparation, property oversight, seasonal home care, light maintenance, and proactive household support. Known for my discretion, reliability, and attention to detail, I take pride in maintaining homes that feel immaculate, calm, and welcoming while supporting the smooth day-to-day functioning of the household.
