Working experience

September 2024 - till now

LETOVO JUNIOR SCHOOL

Teacher

My role includes

Main responsibilities

- Teach Spanish to primary-aged students (Years 1–6) at one of Russia's most selective international schools, covering beginner through elementary CEFR levels within a structured, rigorous curriculum.
- Design and sequence thematic units integrating CLT, Inquiry-Based Learning, and gamification — including a Latin American Folklore unit adopted across Year 3 and Year 4 cohorts after its first semester.
- Develop all curriculum materials, rubrics, and formative and summative assessments from scratch; maintain transparent progress reporting with parents in a bilingual (Spanish–English) school environment.

Major achievements

- Founded the Spanish programme at Letovo Junior School — designed and built the entire curriculum from scratch as the school's first-ever Spanish teacher, establishing scope, sequence, materials, and assessment frameworks now used across all primary year groups.
- Launched the school's first Spanish Language & Culture Club, growing membership to 20+ students within one semester; recognised by leadership for strong parent communication and student engagement across all primary levels.
