About myself

I have over 10 years of childcare experience from being a dance teacher to a nanny. I am a bright, intelligent and adventurous person, who is always ready for a challenge. I've lived and worked in many cities in my life and I'm always ready to relocate to a new place.

I enjoy exercising, hanging out with my friends, traveling, meeting new people, and experiencing new adventures.

My passion in life is taking care of children.

I've been in Aupair for nearly 3 years and I've enjoyed it immensely.

Prior to being an au pair, I was a personal assistant to the CEO and founder of a company, which you launched my career in real estate.

I have done many different jobs and tasks due to these two careers and I'm excited to see what my next journey is.
