About myself	I am a 30-year-old Scottish girl living in Dubai. I consider myself a confident, friendly and vibrant person who gets on with people from all walks of life. I work well alone or as part of a team, whatever the job requires. I like to learn new things; I am a fast learner and I enjoy new challenges. I am a keen and willing worker; a happy outgoing person who is very chatty and I consider myself an ideal candidate for any work involving children or general public. I opened my own business in Fuengirola, Spain in April 2015 “AMYS PUB”, a small drinks bar situated in the bustling ‘Fish Alley’ restaurant area of the town. I have lived in Spain for over six years, Portugal for five years and now in my 9th year in Dubai. While living in Dubai I changed my career path and decided to go into teaching at nursery level, after having my son who is now 4 years old. I have since gained my Cache 2 certificate and

currently studying Cache 3.

I am a Dynamic Nursery Teacher with extensive experience in early childhood education and a proven ability to foster a nurturing and stimulating environment for young learners. Currently engaged at Willow Nursery, with a background in teaching English, demonstrating strong communication and organisational skills. Recognised for adaptability and a commitment to personal growth, having transitioned from entrepreneurship to education. Passionate about supporting children's development and building lasting relationships with families. Committed to continuous professional development, currently pursuing further qualifications to enhance teaching practices and contribute positively to the educational landscape.
