About myself

Hello,

I'm Hana a nanny and tutor with 4 years of experience.

Being a native French speaker and fluent in English, I offer a language-rich environment for children.

Whether it's crafting fun experiments or engaging in artistic activities, I enjoy sparking curiosity and laughter from children.

My background in sciences (Bs Biology and Physics) adds an educational touch to playtime, encouraging kids to explore and discover.

I'd love the opportunity to bring my passion for both fun and education to your household.

Kind regards,
Hana
