Working experience

December 2025 - April 2026

UAE, Dubai.

Governess to one child: 2 y.o. Girl

My role includes	I worked with a 2-year old girl from a Russian family, who moved to Dubai to live there permanently. Hence, they needed their daughter to learn English rapidly in order to go start going to the kindergardern and school afterwords. Therefore, my main responsibilities were to stay with her all day long playing, eating food, walking in the park, reading books, doing art etc.

March - October 2025

Russian Federation, Moscow.

Governess to one child: 10 y.o. Girl

My role includes	I worked as a private tutor for a 10-year-old girl, providing comprehensive academic support and personal care. My responsibilities included assisting her with homework, ensuring she understood her school subjects, and nurturing her overall development. In addition to academic tutoring, I managed her daily routines by preparing meals and being present with her at all times. I also facilitated her transportation by dropping her off and picking her up from school. This role has allowed me to cultivate a supportive learning environment while reinforcing her English language skills through consistent practice and engagement.

November 2024 - February 2025

Russian Federation, Moscow.

Tutor/Teacher

My role includes	As a dedicated native English private tutor in Moscow, I specialised in teaching English to children aged 3.5 to 6 years old. My role extended beyond language instruction; I was responsible for the holistic care of my students, which included picking them up and dropping them off at kindergartens and extracurricular activities.

I ensured their well-being by preparing meals, reading to them, and engaging in daily tasks - all conducted exclusively in English to create an immersive learning environment.

This experience honed my ability to communicate effectively with young learners and fostered their language development through playful and interactive methods

November 2023 - July 2024

Monaco.

Tutor/Teacher

My role includes

As a private tutor in Monaco, I provided educational support to children (7, 8 and 11 years old) studying at the British School of Monaco.

My responsibilities included teaching English, maths, and science, assisting students with homework assignments, and focusing on improving their language skills in writing and spelling.

I tailored lessons to meet the individual needs of each student and fostered a supportive learning environment to encourage academic growth and development. Through my dedication and commitment, I helped students enhance their academic performance and achieve their learning goals.

September - November 2023

Russian Federation, Moscow.

ESL and Science Teacher

“Dolgikh Technolyceum”

My role includes

As an ESL and Science teacher, my work duties include planning and delivering engaging lessons that cater to the language needs of my students.

I assess students' language proficiency levels and develop individualized learning plans to support their language development.

I create a supportive and inclusive classroom environment that encourages students to participate actively in language learning activities.

I utilize a variety of teaching resources, such as textbooks, multimedia materials, and online tools, to enhance students' language skills.

I incorporate interactive activities, group work, and games into my lessons to make learning English enjoyable and interactive for my students.

I regularly provide feedback and assess students' progress to identify areas for improvement and tailor my teaching strategies accordingly.

I collaborate with other teachers and school staff to ensure a cohesive and integrated approach to language learning across different subjects.

One of my achievements as an ESL teacher is successfully helping students improve their English language proficiency levels within a short period of time.

I have also received positive feedback from parents and colleagues about my ability to create a positive and engaging learning environment for students.

Through my teaching, I have seen students gain confidence in using English, develop a love for learning, and achieve academic success in their language studies.

Overall, my experience as an ESL and Science teacher at Dolgikh Technolyceum has equipped me with the skills, knowledge, and passion to continue making a positive impact on students' language learning journeys.

«LEGACY»

My role includes

As a native English language teacher I led classes for half a day for bilingual group of students aged 3,5-5 years old.

My responsibilities included preparation of lessons according to the timetable and curriculum guidelines, to manage classroom behaviour and to monitor children wellness, to structure and to participate in concerts.

November 2019 - April 2020

Russian Federation, Moscow.

Native English language Teacher

“Sunschool”

My role includes

Working as a Native English teacher I lead a group of preschoolers (5-7yo) during the second part of the day.

That includes me waking kids up after their daily nap, feeding them snacks and dinners, going outside for a walk, playing, as well as teaching phonics, reading and writing, maths, arts and crafts. We spent the whole afternoon speaking only English language.

May - December 2018

Russian Federation, Moscow.

English language Teacher

“Goosenok”

My role includes

As an English language teacher (native speaker) in this kindergarten, I conducted lessons for groups of 2-3 and 4-5 years old kids.

My responsibilities were to plan, to create and to deliver English language lessons, as well as art/crafts lessons, teaching children how to draw with paints and pencils, how to use glue, etc.

Furthermore, I stayed with kids most of the time throughout the day playing with them, helping nannies to feed them, to dress and to undress them, to go for a walk etc.

September 2017 - July 2018

Russian Federation, Moscow.

English language Teacher

"Resultat+"

My role includes

As an English language teacher I prepared and delivered personalized lessons for individuals and small groups of students after assessing and identifying areas in need of improvement.

The age range of taught students varied from 7 year olds to adults. I provided explanations and exercises on English grammar, pronunciation, listening and speaking skills with the following assigned and corrected homework tasks. Furthermore, I assisted a few students in their preparation for the EGE English language examination (final year at school) with their successful pass of it.

2013 - till now

Private Native English language Teacher/Governess

My role includes

I started my teaching practice as a private tutor for individual students when I arrived to Moscow. I delivered English lessons to students of various age groups (from 5 to 70 year olds) with a wide range of skill-levels and language learning needs, such as: needing help with the school curriculum, business language, banking vocabulary, preparation for IELTS and TOEFL exams, writing dissertations (academic writing).

Therefore, I developed individually tailored lesson plans and assessments with the help of broad range of techniques and strategies addressing all aspects of communication that develop any student's ability to read, write, speak, and listen.

As a native teacher/governess in private families my main responsibilities are to improve students' English level, to assist them with online schools, to check their homework, to communicate with their school teachers, to control their eating habits, to entertain children during their free time.

Furthermore, I had to travel with families when needed within and out the country.
