Working experience

August 2022 - till now

Gems International School

Homeroom Teacher to children: 7 - 8 years old, UAE, Dubai

My role includes

- I am currently a grade 2 homeroom teacher and I have the pleasure of working with both boys and girls. I am thoroughly enjoying this experience and I really enjoy teaching this age group. I have been met with new teaching opportunities as I teach a great portion of English-language learners whose first language would not be English. This has been a great leap to move overseas and it will open up a huge amount of new teaching opportunities for me.

September 2021 - August 2022

St. Mary's College Junior School

Tutor or Teacher to children: 11-12 years old, Ireland, Dublin

My role includes

- Here I taught a class of thirty sixth class boys. This was my first time teaching this year group and it allowed me to learn an immense set of new skills and values as a teacher. I really enjoyed the year I had with sixth class and each day taught me something new

September 2019 - June 2021

Various schools

Substitute teacher to children: 5 - 12 years old , Ireland, Dublin

My role includes

- St. Colmcilles Naofa March 2021-June 2021
- St. Christopher's Primary School September 2020- February 2021
- St. Raphaela's Primary School September 2019- December 2020
- St. Brigid's Boys National School September 2020- January 2021
- Oatlands Primary School September 2020-December 2020
- St. Michael's Special School September 2019-June 2020

January - June 2020

St. Michael's Special School

Maternity Cover, Ireland, Dublin

My role includes

- I was a team teacher/ ASD support assisting three classes. I taught students based on national curriculum guidelines within their specific area of need. I planned and prepared lessons alongside the other teachers and I delivered lessons daily. I gained exceptional experience within this role and learned a range of new teaching strategies and classroom management skills
