Full time nanny Notting Hill (London) – B (1) & B (3)

My role includes

- I was working as a French nanny full time for a family based in nothing Hill, my charge was a 3 and 1 year old boy. The position was a mix of sole charge and shared care as they were very close to their parents, but sometimes mum and dad needed adult time and that was when I would have the boys on my own.my duties was including cooking fresh mixed vegetables for the baby, cooking different meal for the 3 year old boy, sterilize bottles and toys but also Organizing and maintaining their wardrobes tidy. I was also doing the pick up and drop off to nursery and organizing play date. It was a lovely experience and they are a great family with whom I've kept in touch.

Rota Nanny (London) – G (3) 2018–2020

My role includes

- I started working with this family in January 2018 on a rota basis with another nanny; both parents work full-time and up to that point, . When I started, my charge was 18 months and my role was mainly introducing activities of social children's clubs such as Purple Dragon/Maggie & Rose and once she was registered, I implemented a social calendar with a mix of club days, trips to the park and regular playdates with other children.as the parents wanted her to be more social and around people

Freelance Private French Tutor (London) – 2018

My role includes

- Teaching and developing primary age children in French and Languages
- Developing and preparing pre-primary children for easy transition into school
- Teaching set curriculum to secondary school students and developing their weaker subjects.
- Helping children with the French spelling and pronunciation
- Reviewing and helping my students with coursework and homework tasks

Temp French Tutor/Nanny Kensington (London) – G (12) &B (10) 2017

My role includes

- I was working as a temporary nanny/tutor for a family based in Kensington; my charge was a 12-year-old girl and a 10-year-old boy who were bilingual in both French and English and my role was to create schedules, keep up with their homework and maintain their French level. I encouraged them to learn by centering it around things that they enjoy; for example, the boy loved science so we were reading a lot of French sciences book and making science experience, for the girl, she loved singing so we would create French songs.
